

Holding Your Own

An Irishman walking along the highway asked a passerby how far it was to the next town. "Ten miles" was the reply. After walking for another hour or two he met another man and then again asked how far it was to the town. "Oh about ten miles" was the reply. Pat then said: "Well begob, I seem to be holding my own, any way."

Not every one can do that well. In financial affairs many people fail to even hold their own, without the aid of a good strong bank like ours. May we help you hold your own? May we safeguard your funds and offer you the services of our bank? We invite you to come in and talk it over.

Fewer Deliveries Make More Soldiers

The U. S. Government has asked the co-operation of all retail stores in reducing deliveries. We are pledged to help. We figure that only one delivery to each residence daily will enable us to serve you as we promise to do, and not make you a lot of promises that we cannot fulfill. Help is hard to get, and we trust you will assist us and give us your order in time to catch our delivery going your way. Ring us up and get the time the delivery leaves for your neighborhood, or get it from our solicitor. No order will be booked after 8 o'clock for delivery Saturday night.
